Hinkletown Mennonite School (HMS) believes strongly that Christian education happens best when there is a partnership between the student, his/her parents, HMS and the church. Students are invited to be active members of the school community and to take responsibility as a partner in their education at HMS.

Covenant Statement

As a high school student in the Hinkletown Mennonite School community, I promise to honor myself and my school in the following ways:

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Taking seriously the development and growth of my Christian faith.

- Practicing servant leadership
- Exercising constructive and respectful dialogue
- Participating in the school's practices of restorative discipline and peacemaking
- Committing to education under the HMS Statement of Faith*

EDUCATIONAL SUCCESS

Partnering with the teachers.

- Respecting my teachers and those in responsible positions
- Taking responsibility to work diligently toward my learning goals, both in and out of the classroom
- Practicing forthright communication with my parents and my teachers
- Sharing my interests, concerns and hopes with my parents and teachers so that they can support my learning and goals
- Using established procedures to discuss issues and to solve conflicts

COMMUNITY LIFE

Participating as a positive influence in the life of the school

- Honoring & complying with the policies and routines of the school
- Exercising awareness of others in the HMS community and their needs, including younger students
- Serving in the school and the local community using my God-given gifts and abilities
